That boy of yours—
You expect to give him
The right sort of a chance—
A good education?
Of course you do.
You are laying up a fund now
So he can go away to college.
It costs too much to get
A college education these days.
It would be a real calamity.
Wouldn't it?
If anything should happen
To that college fund?
What could happen to it?
Have you ever thought
Just where you would get the money
To tide over a long sick spell
Or to pay hospital expenses
If you met with a serious accident?
You wouldn't have to fall back
On that college money—maybe?

SAY—
Don't you think it would be wise
To protect that fund against loss?
Sure it can be done!
Just as easy
And it won't cost you a cent
To find out how.
Call me and I'll tell you.

Frawley Players Give Maui Patrons Three Fine Presentations

Three highly enjoyable performances by the Frawley Far Eastern Players with Adele Blood in the leading role were given on Maui instead of two as had been previously arranged. The added performance was made possible by the change of schedule of the Inter-Island steamer Kilauea because of engine trouble delaying her one day.

Tuesday night in the Wailuku Hippodrome a good house greeted and applauded the players in "The Gold Diggers." The play was rich in comedy and the lines full of wit so that ripple after ripple of laughter swept the audience. The part of Jerry Lamar was well suited to and well carried by Miss Blood. Her rapid transition from sweet, charming womanhood to the tough, hardened woman of the world, and then back again, with all the while and underlying foundation of pure gold character showed her a mistress of her art. Helen Barnes was a charming ingenue and Mary Adams carried her comedy role excellently. In fact the whole cast was well balanced and their work excellent.

The following night, Wednesday, at the Kahului Theatre, the company presented "Kenny" to a small but enthusiastic audience. In this play Daniel Frawley as "Dad" Bence won the house by his excellent portrayal of the abused father of a large family. Starring with Frawley in the cast were Herbert Light as "Duke" Merrill and Doris Kemper in the role of the petulant child. Deserving mention of a part well played are Helen Barnes and Lester Sybe who played the lead as "Kenny" James.

Last night the presentation at the Kahului Theatre was "The First Year," a well played comedy which pleased immensely.

Honolulu Music Company Is Increasing Maui Business

Under new arrangements with the main house in Honolulu the Honolulu Music Company store in Wailuku is to carry much larger and more complete lines of musical instruments, sheet music, rolls and records than formerly. The force with Jack Bergstrom has been increased also and the musical world of Maui is to be served as never before, Bergstrom said on Wednesday.

Already a considerable shipment of instruments and music has been received and put on display, another shipment has arrived but has not yet been opened and still other shipments are to follow next week.

Within the store a considerable improvement in appearance can already be noticed while without the front has been repainted and decorated.

Obituary

DR. W. RUSSELL BOOTE

Funeral services and interment of the late William Russell Boote took place Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Lao Valley cemetery.

Dr. Boote passed away Tuesday afternoon at his residence on Market Street. He had been ill for some months but not thought to be in a serious condition until shortly before his death.

The deceased was 48 years of age at the time of his demise and had been a resident of Maui for the past 25 years. Born at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, he came to the islands after his brother who for some years was manager at Spreckelsville.

Dr. Boote was a well known dentist up to a few years ago when he practically retired from active practice. In his day he was a great athlete and took a prominent part in local sports.

The deceased is survived by a sister, Mrs. E. Tricke of Baton Rouge, and information of the death of her brother has been sent her.
